
"CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF THIS ONE" – OUR PINOT NOIR INSPIRES NORWAY

Major Norwegian publication Verdens Gang (VG) celebrates our 2024 Mussbach Spätburgunder: "Silk and velvet at once—rich and romantic".

Every now and then, a wine review captures the very essence and emotion we strive to bottle through our dedicated vineyard and cellar work. Writing for Norway's major news outlet VG, wine critic Sara Døscher reviewed our 2024 Mussbach Spätburgunder with words that deeply moved us.

"A highly sophisticated Spätburgunder! Wow, this is gorgeous. Silk and velvet at once. Delicate yet powerful—isn't that a contradiction? Not when it comes to this wine."

Review Excerpt by Sara Døscher (VG):

"Müller-Catoir's Mussbach Spätburgunder is delicate and nuanced, making time stop for just a brief moment. The more time it gets in the glass, the more it opens up—like a rose. Layer upon layer of sweet and tart red fruit: cranberries, plums, raspberries, freshly crushed strawberries, pomegranate, sage, lavender, and black tea. Touches of rose petals and subtle oak spice. So rich, so romantic. Müller-Catoir proves once again that Pinot Noir outside of Burgundy has more than earned its right to shine. A wow-wine for candlelight and deep thoughts."

The publication awarded our Pinot Noir a maximum Die Roll 6 (highest rating) alongside 91/100 points. Skål and thank you to Norway for such inspiring feedback!
