

EXCLUSIVE UK DISTRIBUTION VIA HALLGARTEN & NOVUM WINES

Strengthening our UK market presence through partnership with one of the realm's premier wine merchants.

A New Chapter for Our Wines in Great Britain

We are delighted to announce a new partnership for our distribution across the United Kingdom: Hallgarten & Novum Wines is taking over as the official importer for our wine portfolio. As a long-standing key player in the British wine trade, Hallgarten supplies top-tier restaurants, hotels, and independent wine merchants nationwide.

“Securing Weingut Müller-Catoir is a landmark moment for our German portfolio. These are highly expressive, serious wines with a distinct, crystalline identity. We are looking forward to showcasing these world-class Pfalz wines to our customers this Autumn and seeing them on wine lists at some of the UK’s finest establishments in the near future.”

— Robert Mathias MW, Buying Director at Hallgarten & Novum Wines

Our initial shipment brings a comprehensive range of our estate's profile to the UK market—spanning vibrant entry-level bottlings, distinct terroir-driven village wines, our Pinot Noir, and our flagship Grosses Gewächs.

The Selection Available Across the UK:
